Rabbit Division

Superintendent: Nancy Austin Assistant: Olivia Dodson and Tana Hoover

1. Entries are subject to general rules. This is a carrier show
2. Judging: Meat pens followed by breeding show.
3. Ownership / Possession: meat pens must be owned and in the possession of exhibitor four (4) weeks prior to show date. Breeding must be owned and in the possession of exhibitor six (6) weeks prior to show date.
4. Meat pens will consist of 3 rabbits—all same breed and variety. AGE LIMIT not over 10 weeks of age. Minimum weight per rabbit is 3 ½ pounds and the maximum weight is 5 ½ pounds. If you have one or more rabbits less than 3 ½ lbs or one or more over 5 ½ lbs it will result in being disqualified and your pen will need to be returned to your carrier. It will not go to the show table.
5. Top 8 pens or 33%, whichever is greater, of meat pens that qualify for the show are eligible for the Ribbon Auction, excluding the Grand and Reserve Champion Pens. Percentage will be rounded to the nearest whole number. Heavy and lightweight rabbits will be allowed to bump up when ⅓ or 33% of the class is not being sold due to an exhibitor pulling a heavy or lightweight rabbit out of the sale.
6. Rabbits are to be a recognized breed from the current Standard of Perfection published by ARBA.
7. Meat pen rabbits must be tattooed by a committee member or volunteer secured by the superintendent at the specified date and time of validation with a CCJLS specific tattoo. Breeding rabbits without permanent tattoos will not be allowed to show. Breeding rabbit exhibitors may bring their rabbits to validation to be tattooed, if needed.
8. Mating of rabbits is prohibited on show grounds. Anyone in violation of this rule will be removed from the show and forfeit all awards.
9. Breeding entries can be changed the morning of the show as long as they are the same class, same sex, and same breed but must be designated before the start of the breeding show. Late entries are accepted as well but must be turned in and paid for before the breeding show begins. Any changes that need to be made must be made before the breeding show begins also. Breeding rabbit exhibitors are required to check in and verify their rabbit information. Changes to the class, breed or sex will result in a $5 fee. Instructions to check in and make changes will be given over the loudspeaker. If an error is found while the committee members are lining up classes on the show table, you will not be allowed to show. Take care of any changes before the show begins.
10. All Best of Breed Rabbits will compete for Best in Show and Reserve in Show.
11. Meat Pen rabbits will be broken down into two weight classes. Lightweight and Heavyweight. They will be broken down by the pen of 3 total. Lightweight will be 10.5-13.5 lbs., Heavyweight will be 13.6-16.5 lbs. The top two from each weight class will compete for Grand and Reserve of Show. The percent of sale will come out of both weight classes.

Poultry Division

Superintendent: Sam Harrison

Assistant: Craig Rounsaville and Brian Lowe

All entries are subject to General Rules for the Collin County Junior Livestock Show. Each exhibitor is required to bring feed and water containers, and feed and water for each pen entered along with bedding.

Poultry arrive in wash racks located in cattle barn.

Broiler Division:

1. Exhibitor may enter as many as 2 pens per student from the original group of chicks.
2. Only one pen of broilers may be sold per exhibitor.
3. A broiler pen will consist of a uniform group of three birds from the original order. Pen may include birds of either sex.
4. The top (8) pens or 33%, whichever is greater, of Broilers will be sold at the sale as determined by the numbers of entries. Poultry will be allowed to bump up when $\frac{1}{3}$ or 33% of the class is not being sold due to an exhibitor pulling a heavy or lightweight poultry out of the sale.
5. The exhibitor must be with his/her birds while judging is performed. (Exceptions must be approved by the Superintendent).
6. A validation change of ownership form may be submitted by November 30th to change eligible exhibitor (s).
7. Wing bands will be checked and must reflect number series as assigned by superintendent at pick up. Pens that include birds with band numbers not in assigned series will be disqualified.
8. Non-banded birds will be disqualified
9. Current FFA members or 4-H members are the only people that can hold/exhibit broilers while they are being shown.
